

IP Workshop Programme

- Date: 5th November 2008
- Venue: Nanjing - Office of International Cooperation and Exchanges: Doujizha, 22 Hankou Road, Nanjing University North Campus(斗鸡 闸, 22 号汉口路, 南大北园)
- Speakers: Mr Graeme Hall, Partner at Marks & Clerk Hong Kong
Mr Haijun Jiang, Attorney of Nanjing Law Firm of Intellectual Property
- Time: 3pm- 6pm
- 3:00pm Welcome Speech - Liwei Zhang, International Office of Nanjing University
- 3:05 pm General Presentation about IP in China (25 minutes) -Mr Graeme Hall
- 3:25pm Q & A Session (5 minutes) -Mr Graeme Hall
- 3:30pm Surgery session (10 minutes per topic) -Mr. Graeme Hall
- Substantive differences in Patent Law between the UK and China
 - Copying of equipment
 - Protection against IP infringements
 - Recognition of joint ownership
 - Disclosure/ protection of inventions
 - Licensing of technology (in general, not China specific)
- 4:40pm IP Protection from China perspective -Mr Haijun Jiang
- 5:00pm Case Studies on IP Protection & Litigation -Mr Haijun Jiang
- Collaborative Research Case on Innovative Anti-Malaria Medicine - Novartis & The Academy of Military Medical Sciences
 - Patent Ownership Dispute Case -Industrial Fabrics Company in CA, USA and Yizheng Fabrics Ltd.
 - Patent Infringement Case -Jingyuan Environmental Engineering Ltd, Wuhan and Fuji Chemical Industrial CO.Ltd
 - IP Dispute Case in the acquisition of Rover by Shanghai Automotive Industry Corporation & Nanjing Automotive Corporation
- 5:30pm Q & A Sessions
- 6:00pm Dinner

Innovation China UK

2nd Floor, Old Anatomy Building, Charterhouse Square, QMUL, London EC1M 6BQ

Tel: +44 (0)20 7882 8340 Fax: +44 (0) 20 7882 8399 Email: info@icukonline.org

Website: www.icukonline.org

Speakers Profile

Mr. Graeme Hall, Partner at Marks & Clerk, Hong Kong

Graeme Hall is the Asian Regional Managing Partner of Marks & Clerk. Graeme qualified as a UK Chartered Patent Attorney in 1988 and as a European Patent Attorney in 1989. Graeme is also a Registered Trade Mark Agent and is a Member of the Institute of Trade Mark Agents. Graeme has a degree in physics from Oxford University and handles patent applications in general engineering, physics and electronic fields, as well as designs and trade marks. Graeme has had particular experience in the automotive and aerospace industries, software and electronics, and also in University originating inventions. Graeme also has extensive litigation experience having been involved in Hong Kong's largest patent infringement trial which went all the way to the Privy Council. Graeme is a past President of the Hong Kong Institute of Trade Mark Practitioners, and is a member of the Asian Patent Attorneys Association, the European Community Trademark Association, the Union of European Practitioners in Industrial Property, the Pharmaceutical Trade Marks Group (PTMG) and FICPI.

Mr Haijun Jiang, Attorney of Nanjing Law Firm of Intellectual Property

Mr Haijun Jiang is an experienced professional IP lawyer in Nanjing Law Firm of Intellectual Property. He is currently a legal advisor for 5 companies, including 2 foreign-invested companies. He has provided patent search for a number of companies, including the patent search for Nanjing Automotive Corporation in their acquisition of Rover with complete patent search report. He has also provided legal advice on some IP litigation cases for quite a few companies. He has provided the service for the registration, protection of patents, trade marks and software for over 200 cases.

Innovation China UK

2nd Floor, Old Anatomy Building, Charterhouse Square, QMUL, London EC1M 6BQ

Tel: +44 (0)20 7882 8340 Fax: +44 (0) 20 7882 8399 Email: info@icukonline.org

Website: www.icukonline.org